Glassdoor: https://www.glassdoor.com/Overview/Working-at-Apple-EI_IE1138.11,16.htm

Company Description:

Apple Inc. is an American multinational technology company headquartered in Cupertino, California, United States. Apple was founded as Apple Computer Company on April 1, 1976, by Steve Wozniak, Steve Jobs and Ronald Wayne to develop and sell Wozniak's Apple I personal computer. It was incorporated by Jobs and Wozniak as Apple Computer, Inc. in 1977 and the company's next computer, the Apple II, became a best seller and one of the first mass-produced microcomputers. Apple went public in 1980 to instant financial success. The company developed computers featuring innovative graphical user interfaces, including the 1984 original Macintosh, announced that year in a critically acclaimed advertisement. By 1985, the high cost of its products and power struggles between executives caused problems. Wozniak stepped back from Apple amicably and pursued other ventures, while Jobs resigned bitterly and founded NeXT, taking some Apple employees with him.

Interview Process:

Step 1: Resume Screen.

Provide recruiter to his resume for the interview.

Step 2: Recruiter Screening Call.

The Apple interview process begins when a recruiter spots your resume or profile and reaches out to you for an initial screening call.

Step 2: Technical Phone Interview.

Technical role applicants are often asked to do another phone interview (or two) with a Apple hiring representative. This phone call happens 1 to 2 weeks after the initial screening call.

Step 3: Virtual On-Site Interview Loops.

Apple's on-site interview rounds are now done remotely. This process consists of 4 to 5 continuous interviews, held on the same day.

Step 4: Final On-Site Interview or As-Ap.

The final on-site interview is called the "As-Ap" or "As Appropriate" interview. This takes place with a senior manager who has the authority to veto your entire candidacy or extend you a hiring offer.

Step 5: HR Interview (Maybe).

Some candidates are asked to complete an HR interview. This gets into more behavioral and/or technical questions.

Step 6: Offer or No Offer.

Apple has a reputation for making offers on the spot right during the interview process, but that doesn't always happen.

Company 3: Google

Website: www.google.com

Job Site: <https://careers.google.com/jobs/results/>

Glassdoor: <https://www.glassdoor.com/Reviews/Google-Reviews-E9079.htm>

Company Description:

Google LLC is an American multinational technology company focusing on search engine technology, online advertising, cloud computing, computer software, quantum computing, e-commerce, artificial intelligence, and consumer electronics. It has been referred to as "the most powerful company in the world" and one of the world's most valuable brands due to its market dominance, data collection, and technological advantages in the area of artificial intelligence. Its parent company Alphabet is considered one of the Big Five American information technology companies, alongside Amazon, Apple, Meta, and Microsoft.

One sentence to describe: Google is the best place to work as a software engineer.

Interview Process:

Step 1: Resume screen

The first step of Google's interview process is the resume screen. Here, after you've submitted your application through Google's jobs portal, or been contacted directly via email or LinkedIn, recruiters will evaluate your resume to see if your experience aligns with the open position.

Step 2: Recruiter call

After your resume has been approved, a recruiter will get in contact with you to schedule a call. This generally lasts 20-30 minutes.

Step 3: Phone screen(s)

Depending on the role, you will either have one or two phone screens with your hiring manager, or a future peer of the team you're applying to join.

Step 4: Onsite interviews .

The longest and most daunting step of the Google interview process is the onsite interview loop. This may take place in Google's physical offices, or via video call.

Step 5: Hiring committee.

After the onsite rounds, your interviewers grade your performance using a standardized feedback form. It contains your responses to each of the questions, their feedback on your responses, and their final recommendation (e.g. "Strong no hire," "No hire," "Leaning no hire," "Leaning hire," "Hire," "Strong hire").

Step 6: Team match.

If you applied and interviewed for a role that is specific to a certain team at Google from the beginning, then you will likely skip the team matching step.

Step 7: Salary negotiation.

Finally, once you've passed each of the six steps above, you'll receive your offer package from Google.
